SOCIETY SEASON NOW IN FULL SWING FOR WINTER

Many Handsome Entertainments Have Been Planned for This Week.

SOME BRILLIANT MARRIAGES

Receptions and Teas for Debutantes of Season Scheduled for Almost Every Day—Some Prominent Weddings of Virginia People.

The society season is now in full swing for the winter, and a number of handsome functions of interest have been planned for this week. One of the most important social events of the month of December is the marriage of Miss Lucille Nelson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Frank Waller Nelson, of Lakeside, to Neal Duncan Ivey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Ivey, of Nashville, Tenn., which is to be celebrated on Thursday of this week. The ceremony, which will be a very quiet one, will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Murray M. McGuire, 1215 West Avenue, with only relatives and a few intimate friends present. Both Miss Nelson and Mr. Ivey are widely related and their wedding, although a small home affair, is of the greatest interest to society here and in Tennessee.

To-morrow afternoon Mrs. Reginald Gilliam and Miss Virginia Pleasants are giving a reception at the residence, 11 East Franklin Street, for Misses Roberta Kyle Pleasants and Mary G. Tyler, both debutantes of the season. The guests have been invited from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Tuesday afternoon from 6 to 7 o'clock, Mrs. Joseph H. Estes, of 1826 Monument Avenue, will entertain the debutantes and the younger society set at tea in honor of Miss Annie Cleveland Cone, her debutante niece. The affair will be given in the Estes home on Monument Avenue.

Another interesting debutante affair will be the home dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Thornton at their residence, 1819 Monument Avenue, Wednesday evening. This dance is in honor of two buds of the winter, Misses Clara Vane Beverley, of Blackstone, and Sally Branch Donnan, of Petersburg, both nieces of Mrs. Thornton. On the same evening a brilliant company of guests will throng the armory of the Richmond Gray for the first of a series of full-dress battalion drills and dances that is to be given there. Over a thousand invitations have been issued, and some of the leading society women in town will act as patronesses for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Reed, of 1009 West Franklin Street, will introduce their daughter, Miss Alice Burwell Reed, to society at a brilliant ball given at the Jefferson Hotel on Thursday night at 9 o'clock.

Dance for Miss Cone.
Mrs. Archibald Pleasants Cone, of 1001 West Franklin Street, has issued invitations for a dance in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Annie Cleveland Cone, at the Century Club in Virginia on December 8 at 8 o'clock. The younger dancing set has been included in the invitations for this affair.

Prominent Visitors.
Messrs. Douglas and Kenneth Ellington, of North Carolina, are the house guests of their cousin, B. H. Ellington, at 1817 Monument Avenue. Douglas Ellington is in America on account of the winning of the Beane prize, to which he won the Paris scholarship given by the Beaux Arts in New York City, and since being of the Beaux Arts Mr. Ellington has won several medals. Also the "Cocour Beveing," being the first American awarded that honor.

At the Woman's Club.
A delightful program has been arranged by Mrs. Alexander B. Guleson, chairman of the afternoon at the Woman's Club for to-morrow. This will be the first musical of the season there, and Miss Jean Trigg, contralto, will be the soloist. The musical will begin promptly at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Sally Guld Donaldson will give another of her series of lectures at the Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. These lectures have proved tremendously interesting events, and large audiences have been present to hear Mrs. Donaldson. The subject for her talks this week is "The Industrial Revolution, Why England Was First in Race for Commercial Supremacy, France Second, and Why Germany Must Win Her Place."

Children's Party.
A very attractive party was given by Mrs. Edgar Gunn at 304 West Franklin Street, on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5, in honor of little William Van Lennop, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Van Lennop, of Memphis and Baltimore, Md., who is spending the holidays with the Gunns. Among those present were Misses Elizabeth Gibson, Mary Ross Scott, Virginia Morton, Harriet Caperton, Mary Caperton, Martha Harrison, Mildred Gates, Mary Austin Mann, Oppenheimer, Margaret Chesterman, Waller Scott, Charlotte Kent, Louise Withers, William Van Lennop, Landon Cabell, Robert Cabell, Eppa Hutton, Frederick Scott, Taylor Crump, Arthur Scrivenor, Frederick Gunn, George Gibson, Jack Hotchkiss, Forbes Hotchkiss, Scott Parrish, Jack Sands, James Pollard, Frederick Todd and others.

Of Interest Here.
An interesting wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Pattie Elizabeth Epps and Henry Hutton Watson, at Lebanon Methodist Church, Dinwiddie Court-house. The ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Moore officiating, and the church and house were both decorated with palms and white and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Travis Epps, wore a lovely gown of white satin, with trimmings of real lace, and carried a bouquet of the valley and bride roses. Mrs. Bonner of Washington, was matron of honor, and Miss Gordon Baskerville, of Clifton Forge, the maid of honor, wore yellow crepe de chine dresses. The bridesmaids were: Misses Robekah and Calna Watson, Sidney Guy, Ghetty Blackstone and Kate Galuska, and they wore soft white dresses. The groom's best man was Congressman Walter A. Watson, and the ushers were: Leon Watson, William Norrlet, John Wingo, Morton Goode, Moncure Gravatt and Thornton Jeffries. A reception followed in the bride's home, then Mr. and Mrs. Watson left for Richmond. On Saturday they will sail for Porto Rico to spend several weeks.

Guests from a distance were: Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. H. H. Royall, U. S. N., of Great Lakes, Ill.; Congressman and Mrs. Walter A. Watson, Judge Robert G. Southall, of Amelia; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle, of Washington; Wade Doyle, of Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daw and Frank T. Sutton, Jr., of Richmond.

Charming Texas Matron

Mrs. Thomas W. Gregory

The wife of the newly appointed Attorney-General of the United States is a charming Texas matron, prominent in the most fashionable social circles of the nation's capital. She is a very attractive and most charming addition to the distinguished set of the wives of the Cabinet officers. As Julia Nalle, she was considered one of the belles of Austin, Texas, when she married Mr. Gregory at that city, February 22, 1882.

Greene County, performed the ceremony, and the bride entered the drawing-room with her brother, Robert Masop Perkins, who gave her away. The groom was attended by his brother, Edgar Littleton, of Leesburg, and little Miss Josephine Norris, of Baltimore, a niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of white mulle and lace with a wide yellow sash, and carried a French basket of yellow roses. The bride's wedding dress was of white satin with an overdress of embroidered chiffon cloth, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns. Her veil fell to the hem of her gown, and was fastened with orange blossoms.

The house was decorated everywhere in ferns, evergreens and flowers, and an orchestra played the wedding music. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton left later for a Southern honeymoon, and on their return will live at "The Orchards," near Ivy.

Some of the out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John (Continued on Third Page.)

For Beautiful Hair, Nourish the Scalp

Dandruff must be removed and the hair roots nourished to stop falling hair and itching scalp. It is unnecessary to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly the hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage rubbed into the scalp is all that is ever needed. The hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, even all dandruff is removed with one application, and itching scalp and falling hair cease; the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage, a daintily perfumed liquid, is one of the most pleasant, invigorating and refreshing hair tonics known, yet perfectly harmless and inexpensive. After the first application you will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage, for there is nothing that will so help to double your present attractiveness as luxuriant, glorious hair, and this tonic treatment is all that can possibly be desired.

Be sure to get Parisian Sage from Tragle Drug Co., or at any drug or haberdashery, as there is no other so effective.—Advertisement.
